

Job Announcement

Precious Women is a local Christian organization in Phnom Penh Cambodia, working alongside women who are being exploited in the Entertainment Industry in Karaoke Bars and Beer Gardens.

Vision: To see all exploited women working in Cambodia’s entertainment industry live with dignity, equality, and hope.

Mission: To empower women to improve their lives and work in an environment free from sexual and economic exploitation.

Precious Women is looking for a passionate and qualified Khmer candidate to fill the following position:

Position Title:	1 Empowerment Trainer
Location:	Phnom Penh
Responsibility and Duties
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Connect with owners of Beer Gardens and Karaoke Bars to ask them for cooperation for our training o Train Peer trainers on 10 Topics and empower them to train other women o Provide Empowerment Training to entertainment workers covering 10 topics o Facilitate Empowerment Training and help Peer trainers o Meet with Bar Owners once every 3 months about Best Care and Best Fairness for Entertainment Workers and how to have good cooperation among Precious Women and owners o Research new Beer Gardens and Karaoke Bars in Phnom Penh o Communicate and share information with Outreach Program Coordinator and Social Media Officer to promote programs o Connect women who wish to attend vocational training to the Butterfly Team o Create plan and budget for all training with Peers and Outreach Program Coordinator o Provide story updates, testimonies, monthly report and action plan to the Outreach Program Coordinator every 25th day of each month prior to the staff meeting
Job Requirement
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Strong Christian o Female preferred o Degree in Teaching / Psychology/ Social Science/ Social Work or related fields o Minimum 1 year experience in teaching and experience working with women o Ability to build good relationships with the women and owners o Ability to be a professional liaison with other NGO’s and relevant Government agencies o Have basic skills in computer, internet, email, Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint ...) o Skilled in problem solving o Ability to be flexible and adapt with the team and women o Ability to work independently and take initiative, and make action plans o Ability to teach and empower women to be able to teach other women o Values diversity o Committed to personal growth, and interested in opportunities for capacity building o Serve and promote the vision, mission, core values and strategic plan of Precious Women o Willing to work with the clients who are from different backgrounds and low education o Willing to learn new skills to improve productivity within the organization o Loyal to the organization and team

To request a full Job Announcement please contact us below.

All interested candidates can submit CV before 17 November 2017 to:

Email: info@preciouswomen.org

Phone: + (855) 89 270 470/070 39 2001